It's too dark in here.

It's not good for your eyes. Allow me to turn on some lights. Go ahead then. Were you followed again?
One would think YOU were the one who spent so long time in a nourishment chamber, the way you sit in darkness. I was conscious the whole time, you do know that right?

But of course, I didn’t understand what was going on.

They thought I was dead meat.

That came to me way later.

Help!

‘Aargh!’
Stand still! Help!

Help!

Help!

Don’t move! I believe they won’t be able to see you if you don’t move.

Aaargh!

Help!

Ah!

Aaargh!

Help!

At auv.

Get ’em off me!

Make it stop, please.

Sob.
Does it work?

Do they leave you alone now? Tell me!

What happened?

Was the piezoelectric field switched off?

Here, drink some water. You need it.
What did you see?
Was it just one creature? Or perhaps a group of them?
Same encounters as the last time?
There are more, aren't there?

It hurts.
They had sharp teeth?
Was it the ones with wings again?

I wish you wouldn't do it.

I am very sorry but you're the only one with the ability to see them.

Now, let me get all the details, what did you experience on the etherplane?
