Grandpa has heard that there are problems in Greenland.

And this morning
he found a letter in his mailbox.

It was from Santa!
He wrote that unfortunately he could not come this year.

Grandpa thinks about his grandchildren.
He will do ANYTHING to make those kids happy!

He looks through all his old clothes.

Does he have anything that fits?

He finds a pair of old black boots.
What is it Grandpa wants to do?

A red coat with a white border.

A pair of red trousers.

Grandpa gets a problem when he receives a letter
in his mailbox just before Christmas.
But then he has an idea.
